AND WHEREAS the previous sanction of the Governor-General has been obtained to the passing of this Act;

ENACTED

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title.

1. This Act may be called the Madras Prevention of Adulteration (Amendment) Act, 1933.

Amendment
of section 2,
Madras
Act 121 of 1916.

2. In section 2 of the Madras Prevention of Adulteration Act, 1916 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act),—

(i) after the definition of "public analyst," the following definition shall be inserted, namely:—
"Government analyst" means any person appointed by the Local Government to exercise the powers of a Government analyst under this Act;" and

(ii) for the definition of "local executive officer," the following definition shall be substituted, namely:—

"local executive officer" means—

(i) in the City of Madras, the Commissioner of the Corporation of Madras;

(ii) in the area of any other municipality, the executive authority of the municipality, or if the municipal council is superseded or dissolved and the municipality has not been included in Schedule IX to the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1920, or notified under section 12-C of that Act, any person appointed by the Local Government to exercise and perform the functions of the executive authority under clause (i) of sub-section (3) of section 41 of that Act, or such public servant as may be designated by the Local Government to exercise the functions of a local executive officer under this Act, as the case may be; and

Madras
Act V of 1920.

(iii) is or for other local areas—

(a) the president of the panchayat, or if the panchayat is dissolved or superseded, any person appointed by the Local Government to exercise the powers and discharge the duties of the president of the panchayat under sub-section (3) of section 45 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, or under sub-section (5) of section 45-A of that Act, as the case may be;

Madras
Act XIV of 1920.

Madras
Act XIV of 1935.

(b) if there is no panchayat, the president of the district board, or if the district board is dissolved, any person appointed by the Local Government to exercise the powers and discharge the duties of the president of the district board under sub-section (3) of section 45 of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1922; and

(c) if there is neither a panchayat nor a district board, such public servant as may be designated by the Local Government to exercise the functions of a local executive officer under this Act; and includes any person appointed under section 15-A."

3. In section 4 of the said Act—

(i) sub-section (3) shall be renumbered as sub-section (4) and for sub-sections (1) and (2), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

Amendment
of section 4,
Madras
Act XIV of 1935.

"(1) The local authority having control over any local area to which the Local Government have extended the provisions of this Act, may appoint one or more persons to be public analyst or public analysts for such area and may remove any person so appointed.

(2) Every such appointment and removal shall be subject to the previous approval of the Local Government who may give their approval absolutely or with such conditions as to the period of the appointment, removal, or otherwise, as they may think fit.

(3) Where no public analyst has been appointed for any local area under sub-sections (1) and (2), or where no local authority has been constituted for any local area to which the Local Government have extended the provisions of this Act, the Local Government may appoint one or more persons to be public analyst or public analysts for such local area and may require the local authority or authorities, if any, constituted for such area to defray, in whole or in part and in such proportions as the Local Government may determine, the expenses of, and connected with, the appointment of such analyst or analysts and the carrying out of the provisions of this Act;" and

- (b) in sub-section (4) as renumbered, for the word, figure and brackets "sub-section (2)," the word, figure and brackets "sub-section (3)" shall be substituted.

4. In clause (ii) of the proviso in sub-section (1) of section 5 of the said Act, for the words and figures "brought the fact to the notice of the purchaser either by means of a label on or with the food or in such other manner as the Local Government may, by rule, framed under section 50 of this Act, prescribe," the words and figures "brought the fact to the notice of the purchaser in such manner as the Local Government may by rule made under section 50 prescribe, or in the absence of any such rule, by means of a label on or with the food" shall be substituted.

Amendment
of section 5,
Madras
Act III of 1916

5. Sub-section (3) of section 5 of the said Act shall be renumbered as sub-section (2) and for sub-section (1) of that section, the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

"(1) Save as otherwise provided in sub-section (2), it shall be no defence to a person for an offence under section 5, to allege merely that the vendor was ignorant of the nature, substance or quality of the food sold by him or that the purchaser having bought only for analysis was not prejudiced by the sale.

(2) (a) A vendor shall not be deemed to have committed an offence under section 5, if he proves—

(i) that the food was purchased by him as the same in nature, substance and quality as that demanded by the purchaser and with a written warranty in the prescribed form, if any, to the effect that it was of such nature, substance and quality;

(ii) that he had no reason to believe at the time when he sold the same that the food was not of such nature, substance or quality; and

(iii) that he sold it in the same state as that in which he purchased it.

Provided that such defence shall be open to the vendor only if he has, within seven days of the service on him of the summons, sent to the local executive officer a copy of the warranty with a written notice stating that he intends to rely on it and specifying the name and address of the person from whom he received it and has also sent a like notice of his intention to that person:

Provided further that a warranty given by a person resident in any area in which this Act is in force shall be a defence to the vendor only if the vendor proves to the satisfaction of the Court that he had taken reasonable steps to ascertain, and did in fact believe in, the accuracy of the statement contained in the warranty.

(k) The person by whom the warranty is alleged to have been given shall be entitled to appear at the hearing and to give evidence."

6. After section 6 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Insertion of new section 6-A in
No. 10 Act 211 of 1915.

" 6-A. (1) Every person—

False statements and descriptions.

(a) who, in any proceedings under this Act, wilfully applies to an article of food a warranty given in relation to any other article of food, or
(b) who wilfully gives a label with any article of food sold by him which falsely describes the article sold, shall be punished for the first offence with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and for every subsequent offence with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees.

(2) Every person who, in respect of an article of food sold by him whether as principal or as agent, gives to the purchaser a false warranty in writing shall, unless he proves to the satisfaction of the Court that when he gave the warranty he had reason to believe that the statements or descriptions contained therein were true, be perished for the first offence with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees and for every subsequent offence with fine which may extend to five hundred rupees."

7. Sub-section (2) of section 7 of the said Act shall be omitted.

1915.

8. In section 11 of the said Act, for the words "the public analyst," the words "a public analyst appointed for the local area concerned" shall be substituted.

9. For the proviso to sub-section (1) of section 12 of the said Act, the following provision shall be substituted, namely:—

"Provided that where a sample of an article has been sent to a public or Government analyst, the article or sample thereof may be produced before the Magistrate after the receipt of the certificate of the public or the Government analyst, as the case may be:

Provided further that where a sample of an article sent to the public or Government analyst is certified by him to be not adulterated or to be what it purports or is represented to be, the article and the vessel or utensil seized thereunder section 9 may be returned, at the cost of the local authority in whose area the seizure was made, to the owner or person from whose possession the same was seized."

Amendment
of section 12,
Madras
Act III of 1915.

10. In sub-section (1) of section 13 of the said Act, for the words "a public analyst" has been appointed," the words "a public analyst or public analysts have been appointed," for the words "appointing the analyst" the words "appointing such analyst or analysts," and for the words "such public analyst" the words "such public analysts or any of such public analysts" shall be substituted.

Substitution of new section for section 14,
Madras
Act III of 1915.

Power of local authority to take samples for analysis.

11. For section 14 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

"14 (1) The local executive officer may—

(a) take a sample of any article of food from—

(i) any person exposing such article for sale, or

- (ii) any person who is in the course of conveying it or of delivering or preparing to deliver it to a purchaser or consignee, or
- (iii) a consignee after delivery to him, and
- (b) send such sample for analysis to the public analyst or any of the public analysts appointed for the area within which such sample has been taken.

Explanation.—The power conferred by this subsection on the local executive officer includes power to break open any receptacle or package in which any article of food may be contained.

- (2) Where any sample is taken under sub-section (1), the cost thereof calculated at the rate at which the article is usually sold in the market shall be tendered or paid to the person from whom it is taken.
- (3) Any person who in any manner whatsoever prevents the local executive officer or any person duly authorized by him from taking a sample under sub-section (1) shall, where his act does not amount to an offence under the Indian Penal Code, be punished with fine which may extend to one hundred rupees."

12. In section 15 of the said Act—

- (i) for sub-section (1), the following sub-section shall be substituted, namely:—

*Amendment
of Section 15,
Act No. III of 1913.*

"(1) When the local executive officer takes a sample of any article of food with the intention of sending it for analysis to any public analyst appointed for the local area, he shall—

- (a) give notice in writing of his intention to have it so analysed to the person from whom he has taken the sample;
- (b) separate the sample then and there into three parts and mark and seal or fasten up each part in such manner as its nature permits; and
- (c) (i) deliver one of the parts to the person from whom the sample has been taken;
- (ii) send another part for analysis to any such public analyst, and
- (iii) retain the third part for production in case proceedings are taken or for analysis by the Government analyst under sub-section (2) of section 16, as the case may be; " and

- (6) in sub-section (2) for the word " seller " the words " person from whom the sample has been taken " shall be substituted, and the words " to the purchaser or " shall be omitted.

Amendment
of section 16
Madras
Act 22 of 1916.

13. In section 16 of the said Act, for sub-section (3), the following sub-sections shall be substituted, namely:—

- " (2) Where the sample was sent by the local executive officer, he may, if not satisfied with the certificate delivered to him under sub-section (1), subject to such rules as may be prescribed by the Local Government and the payment of such fees, if any, as may be fixed by him in this behalf, send to the Government analyst for analysis the part referred to in sub-clause (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 15. The Government analyst shall thereupon analyse such part and grant a certificate in the form prescribed in the Schedule to this Act or to the like effect, specifying the result of his analysis.
- (3) The certificate granted by the Government analyst under sub-section (2) shall supersede the certificate delivered by the public analyst under sub-section (1).
- (4) Where a certificate obtained from the Government analyst under sub-section (2) is produced in any proceeding under this Act or under sections 272 to 275 of the Indian Penal Code, it shall not be necessary in such proceeding to produce any part of the sample of food taken for analysis.
- (5) Any document purporting to be a certificate signed by a public analyst unless it has been superseded under sub-section (3), or any document purporting to be a certificate signed by the Government analyst, may be used as evidence of the facts stated therein in any proceeding under this Act or under sections 272 to 275 of the Indian Penal Code: ^{XXX of 1900.}

Provided that any Court before which a case under this Act is pending, whether exercising original, appellate or revisional jurisdiction, may in its discretion, at the request either of the accused or of the complainant, cause any article of food to be sent for analysis to the Government analyst, unless it has already been analysed by him under sub-section (2). The Government analyst shall thereupon analyse such article and report the result of his analysis to the said Court. The expenses of such analysis shall be paid by the accused or the complainant, as the Court may by order direct."

14. After section 14 of the said Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

Insertion of new sections 15-A and 15-B in Madras Act III of 1916.

"15-A (1) The Local Government may appoint any public servant to exercise the functions of any local executive officer under this Act.

Power of Local Government to appoint local executive officers in certain cases

(2) If in the opinion of the Local Government, such appointment was rendered necessary on account of the failure of the local executive officer to carry out any of the provisions of this Act, the expenses incurred by such public servant in exercising the functions of the local executive officer, shall be borne by the local authority concerned.

Explanation.—If any question arises as to whether any expense was properly incurred by any public servant appointed under this section, it shall be referred to the Local Government whose decision shall be final.

"15-B. The Local Government may, in relation to any matter appearing to them to affect the general interests of the consumers of any article of food, direct any public servant to procure for analysis samples of such article of food and thereupon such public servant shall have all the powers of a local executive officer under this Act and this Act shall apply as if such public servant were the local executive officer, with the following modifications, namely:—

Power of Local Government to have articles analysed

(a) both the parts referred to in sub-clause (ii) and (ii) of clause (c) of sub-section (1) of section 13 shall be forwarded to the Government analyst who shall analyse one of the parts and if he finds it adulterated, he shall send the other part with his certificate to the local executive officer of the place where the sample was procured; and thereupon such officer shall, subject to the rules, if any, prescribed by the Local Government, take proceedings or cause proceedings to be taken as if he had himself caused the analysis to be made; and

(b) any fee for such analysis fixed by the Local Government, the cost of the sample, and the expenditures incurred in procuring it, including the travelling allowances, if any, of the public servant procuring the same, shall be payable by the local authority of the place where the sample was procured."

Amendment
of section
14, Madras
Act III of 1915.

14-A. To section 13 of the said Act, the following proviso shall be added, namely:—

"Provided that a prosecution in respect of an offence under section 4-A may be commenced at any time before the expiry of three months from the date on which the vendor gives notice of his intention to plead a warranty by way of defence under the first proviso to sub-section (2) of section 5."

Insertion
of new section 15-A in Madras Act III of 1915.

15. After section 13 of the said Act, the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

Nothing but articles done in good faith under the Act.

"15-A. No suit, prosecution or other proceeding shall be instituted against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act or any rules or by-laws made or orders issued thereunder."

Amendment
of section 16,
Madras
Act III of 1915.

16. In sub-section (2) of section 20 of the said Act—

(i) in clause (g), the word 'and' at the end shall be omitted; and

(ii) after clause (k), the following clause shall be added, namely:—

(l) prescribing the form of the written warranty referred to in sub-section (3) of section 5;

- (i) prescribing the conditions under which the local executive officer may send samples to the Government analyst for analysis under subsection (2) of section 16; and
- (k) prescribing the conditions, if any, under which the local executive officer may take proceedings or cause proceedings to be taken under section 16-B."

17. For section 21 of the said Act, the following section shall be substituted, namely:—

Substitution of new section 21, Chapter Act III of 1926.

" 21. (1) Every local authority exercising control over any local area to which this Act has been extended, may, under the provisions with regard to the making of by-laws contained in the Act under which such local authority is established, make by-laws, not inconsistent with this Act or the rules made under section 26, for all or any of the purposes of this Act.

By-laws.

(2) In particular, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, the local authority may make by-laws—

- (a) for the prevention of the manufacture or preparation for sale, the exposure for sale or hawking about, or the sale, of articles of food which are adulterated or other than what they purport to be or are represented to be;
- (b) for rendering licences necessary for the manufacture or preparation for sale, the exposure for sale or hawking about, or the sale, of articles of food and prescribing the fees payable for such licences, provided that no such licence shall be rendered necessary for any purpose for which a licence has already been obtained under any of the provisions of the Act under which the local authority is established or any rule or by-law made thereunder; and
- (c) for the inspection and the regulation of places in which articles of food are kept, stored, packed, cleared, manufactured, prepared or exposed for sale, hawked about or sold."

In pursuance of the provisions of sub-section (3) of section 81 of the Government of India Act, the following Act of the Local Legislature of Madras having been assented to by the Governor on the 6th November 1935 and by the Governor-General on the 12th November 1935, is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. XX OF 1935

An Act to provide for the levy of a tax on certain forms of betting in the Presidency of Madras.

WHEREAS it is necessary to make an addition to the public revenue of the Presidency of Madras and for that purpose to provide for the levy of a tax on certain forms of betting, It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title, extent and commencement.

1. (1) This Act may be called the Madras Betting Tax Act, 1935.

(2) It extends to the whole of the Presidency of Madras.

(3) (a) This section shall come into force at once.

(b) The remaining provisions of this Act shall come into force in the district of Chingleput-Madras on the 10th day of November 1935.

(c) The Local Government may, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, direct that all or any of the remaining provisions of this Act shall come into force in any other local area on such date as may be specified in such notification.

Madras Act
III of 1935,
Madras Act
III of 1935.

Application of the Act and savings.

2. (1) This Act shall apply only to betting at meetings for horse-races and pony-races.

(2) Nothing in this Act shall affect the provisions of the Madras City Police Act, 1885, or of the Madras Gaming Act, 1930, regarding the time and place at which betting on horse-races may take place.

3. In this Act, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context—

(a) "backer" includes any person who bets at a totalisator or with a book-maker;

(b) "bet" includes wager; and "betting"
includes wagering;

(c) "book-maker" means a person who carries on the business of making bets with the public in general;

(d) "director" means the person (whether an individual, a corporate body or an association) primarily responsible for the holding of a race-meeting;

(e) "prescribed" means prescribed by rules made under this Act;

(f) "race-meeting" means an assembly of persons for horse-racing or pony racing to which the public have access whether on payment or otherwise; and

(g) "totalisator" means any machine, instrument or contrivance for enabling persons to make bets with one another on the principle of a common pool.

4. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, from time to time, direct that a tax (hereinafter referred to as the totalisator tax) shall be levied on backers in respect of all moneys paid by them into any totalisator by way of stakes or bets.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall specify the local area in which, the rate at which,
and the date from which, the totalisator tax shall be levied:

Provided that the rate shall not exceed four per cent of every sum paid into the totalisator.

(3) Each portion of the moneys paid into the totalisator as is equivalent to the amount of the totalisator tax calculated at the rate specified in the notification levy of totalisator tax.

aforesaid shall be deemed to have been paid by the bookier on account of the totalisator tax and to have been received by the director on behalf of the Local Government.

Levy of tax on bets made with book-makers.

3. (1) The Local Government may, by notification in the Port St. George Gazette, from time to time, direct that a tax (hereinafter referred to as the betting tax) shall be levied on book-makers in respect of all moneys (exclusive of the amount of the bets) paid or agreed to be paid by them to backers in consequence of the winning by the latter of bets made in a place within the race enclosure which the director has, with the sanction of the Local Government, set apart for the purpose of such betting.

(2) Every notification issued under sub-section (1) shall specify the local area in which, the rate at which, and the date from which, the betting tax shall be levied:

Provided that the rate shall not exceed four per cent of every sum paid out by a book-maker to a winning backer, the amount of the bet being excluded.

(3) The betting tax shall be collected, and paid to the Local Government, in such manner as may be prescribed.

Accounts and returns.

4. The director of every race meeting at which betting takes place shall—

(a) cause accounts to be kept in the prescribed manner of all sums paid into every totalisator used, and of all sums paid or agreed to be paid by book-makers to backers in consequence of bets won by the latter at such meeting;

(b) forward at the time, in the manner, and to the officer, prescribed in this behalf, a return showing the total amount of the moneys paid into every totalisator used at such meeting and whenever required, make over to the prescribed officer the amount of totalisator tax collected at such meeting; and

(c) furnish such other reports and returns as may be prescribed.

Levy of tax
in connection with betting under sections 4
and 5.

5. The director of every race meeting held in any local area in respect of which a notification has not been issued under section 4 or section 3 shall pay to the Local Government by way of tax, in respect of such meeting, such amount not exceeding five hundred rupees as may be prescribed.
